Alfred "Al" Dewitt Ferguson was born on December 15, 1943, and he went to join the Lord on December 6, 2021. He is preceded by his Father Orville Ferguson and his mother Edna Kirkland Ferguson, a brother Curtis Ferguson, a sister Marvelinne F. Lynchard, and his daughter Cheryl F. Barrios. After his first marriage, he began working in the oilfield business, where he founded Aim Wireline Controls Inc. after his second marriage until he retired from the oilfield at the age of 53. Three years later he started Aim Solar Screens, a well-known and successful business in Pearland, Texas, which turned into Aim Blinds and Shutters, later transitioning into AI Services from which he retired in 2018.

In between, Mr. Ferguson managed to enjoy his favorite things, horse racing, casino gambling, dancing with his beautiful wife, traveling, and shopping for antiques. Condolences to my Aunt Nancy on the loss of her beloved husband. My Uncle Al was one of the kindest people I've ever known. He will be greatly missed by us all. I'll miss hearing him call me 'sugar booger,' as he often did when greeting us girls. I'm grateful that I got to see him at Thanksgiving. I will cherish that time and the many happy memories he engraved in my heart. Rest in peace, Uncle Al. Love, Gina and family
