I have nothing but heart warming thoughts of fun and good times from my childhood when I think about those weekend fishing trips to Galveston or the sleepovers with all of my cousins at my Uncle Severo and Aunt Cathy's house. Tom Petty playing in the background Uncle Severo horse playing with Severito, my brother George, and Bobby and Thomas or messing around in the garage making chili dogs making sure we all had plenty and we're happy. Even as we grew up I remember visiting as a teen and young adult and Uncle Severo always made it a point to pull me aside for a serious hey are you ok? How are things going? Do you need anything? Do I need to beat up anyone ? Lol. I'll always remember that laugh when he told a joke or gave you a hard time as uncles do and I'll always remember how much love you gave to me and my brother and what a great Uncle you were to us. Uncle Severo I love you and I'll miss you! May you rest in peace Dear Uncle Severo.

Christopher lit a candle in honor of Severo.

We grew up together, played together, and fought together. It was not easy being his friend but there is no other friend that I cared for more. I will miss you but I will never forget you! I truly believe we will meet again. Go with God and Rest in peace!
Your friend Christoper D. Gonzales
