I miss you Sissy everyday. I am so thankful and blessed to have had you to look up to and to learn from your words of wisdom and guidance. Your humor, your humility, your knowledge of the Bible, God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit were/are indispensable. I miss hearing your voice and talking with you for hours about anything. I miss your prayers and unconditional love. I miss you but I do realize you are in a better place. God's blessings follow you. Love, Terry

Stacey Rn lit a candle in honor of Hazel.

This news brought sadness in my heart, I was once Hazel Ann's home health Nurse and she was more like a friend than a Patient, she always had a smile and funny joke that always made my day brighter. She had a heart of gold and a true Angel on this earth, she will be greatly missed by everyone especially her wonderful family, sweetest Sisters anyone can ask for. I know God has you in his arms now and I am forever grateful for the time I had with you. Love Stacey (Nurse)

Annie was a kind, loving and generous soul. She taught me so many things about life, living through your struggles and smiling all the while. She was strong and a prayer warrior. She loved her family and friends fiercely. She was hilarious and loved to tell jokes if she could get through them. I loved her since I was little and I will miss her terribly. She's at peace in Heaven singing with the Angels. I miss you Sissy.

Going to Aunt Ann terribly. She also kind, sweet & encouraging. She would spoils us like she was her own children & never had a harsh word to me. Wish I could gossip with her again but I know her, Aunt Jean & Unk are doing up in heaven.
