Sara Ann Serrano

MAY 10, 1997 - JUL 13, 2022

Sara, 25, of Houston, TX passed unexpectedly on July 13, 2022. The family is heartbroken and devastated by this loss.

Born on May 10, 1997 to loving parents Stacy Palacios and Salvador Serrano, Sara Ann

Serrano immediately filled the lives of those around her with joy, especially when hearing her laugh. Sara graduated high school in 2015 and went on to pursue a degree in business at Lone Star Community College. She loved working with children and worked at Building Blocks Academy, where she was named teacher of the month many times.

She excelled in her work and showed so much love to her daycare kids.

She had a deep bond with her sisters, Brittney and Samantha, that cannot be explained or duplicated. You could always expect laughing, roasting, loud talking and love when they were together. She was a loving aunt to her nephews, Adrian and Gabriel, and adored her grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Sara was engaged to Desi Mitchell.

Sara and Desi met their freshman year in high school. They loved arcades, anime and spending quality time with each other and family. She was passionate about anime and a firm believer that if you knew nothing about it, don't attempt to make it look like you did! She loved her cats and had a soft spot for animals. Her presence is sorely missed and her loss is deeply felt.

Sara is predeceased by her paternal grandparents, Roy and Bonita Serrano and her Samantha Serrano lit a candle in honor of Sara.

Missing you here with me. I miss going to your house to watch movies, waking up with you on trips, roasting each other, and being able to call you always. I lost my life long friend but i know you're here with me and in my heart. I love you sara, may god take you into his kingdom and give you forever peace. I know i will see you again one day ❤️

Brittney lit a candle in honor of Sara.

My world is dim. The light wont shine, when I look for comfort there's none I find. I know you're with me where ever I go, I'll keep your memory for all to know. May the lord wrap you and hold you tight, I know your in the greatest light. I love you Sara, please know I do, I will patiently wait for my time with you. Forever your big sister- Brittney
