Yvonne Edwards Pearce lit a candle in honor of Martha.

Audrey and Jerry. I never knew Aunt Martha until late in her life but she and Charlie were so kind when mom and I saw them at the Bradley reunion in Johnston City, IL, Larry and I visiting them when they lived out west and when she, Charlie and Mr. Duffy visited us in GA. I know she loved working with the Rebekkas and I was happy to take her shopping in historic Madison, GA to find little soaps in the shape of turtles as gifts for members. It is always hard to lose a mother but sweet memories make it much easier. Deepest Sympathies, Yvonne Edwards Pearce (1 of the many great grandchildren of William & Hattie (nee McBride) Bradley
