Eugene grew up on a farm during the great depression. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force and fought in World War II and The Korean War. While in the military, he met his wife Maria and they were married on July 3, 1955. He was a machinist for several different companies before he retired to help his wife with her preschool students. He was a 4th degree Knight of Columbus and avid member of the Catholic Church. He had a very big sense of humor and loved taking trips to Las Vegas with his wife and would always luck out even if no one else did. He loved animals, especially his English bulldogs Regis and CoCo.
