Corrine Lowder posted:

You are so loved! Thank you for always opening your home to me. I am so grateful to have you in so many of my childhood memories. Time at your house ,playing on the bridge, or with the piano and cash register, are all things I vividly remember and moments I'll never forget . Anyone who knew you is better because of it. I know your husband and sons are rejoicing in their reunion with you. Love - Corina
