C an Duy Pham

December 15, 1938 – November 9, 2022

Can Duy Pham, 83, passed away peacefully in Houston, Texas on November 9th, 2022. He was born on December 15th, 1938 in Vietnam and immigrated to the United States in 1981.

Can was a Civil Engineer and later pursued his passion to become a professor in teaching English and French.

During 41 years living in United States, he had devoted and sacrificed his life for family and especially his children to accomplish their American's dream and careers.

Can was a warm-hearted person and a dedicated loving family man. He was an avid traveler, admired art, discovering new music and spending time outdoor.

Can is survived by his son, Quang Pham and his wife Julie Nguyen; son, Kevin Pham; daughter, Yen Pham and her husband Phuoc Le; brother, Tan Duy Pham and his wife My Oanh Ta; niece-in-law Hong Pham; grandson, Winston Pham; granddaughter, Vivian Pham; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

A memorial service is pending at South Park Funeral Home, Pearland, Texas.

Dear Quang Phạm, :I send my condolences to you in this time of sorrow. I feel lucky to have been able to study with Can Duy Pham at the Faculty of Pedagogy in Saigon and become his friend. I wanted to tell you that Can Pham was a great person with a very kind spirit. His presence is truly missed. Once again, I would like to say that I am sorry for the loss of your father. Sincerely, Dung Nghiem

It is with great sadness that we say goodbye to our beloved dad. We know he is now at peace and can finally rest in peace. But, before he did, let us share some of the funniest memories of him with all of you. From making us laugh until the tears rolled down our eyes, dad was an absolute riot! And no matter how mad he got (which wasn't often), we always knew it would only last for a few minutes – because his love was far too strong! We will miss him deeply but will never forget all the beautiful times we shared as a family. Thank you, Dad; from the bottom of our hearts, thank you!
