Cheryl Coyle, age 74, of Galveston, Texas, native of Houston, and formerly from Friendswood, Texas, passed away peacefully on November 21, 2022 at her home in Galveston. Cheryl was born on October 4, 1948 in Houston, Texas to John and Geraldine Leonard. She attended Catholic schools and graduated from high school in 1966 from Mount Carmel Catholic School. Cheryl is preceded in death by her youngest son, Zachary, and her parents.

Cheryl is survived by her husband of 45 years, William H. Coyle III (Bill); her children John Tharp and wife Sunny, Jennifer Valdez and husband Raul, Brian Coyle and wife Courtney, Jason Coyle and wife Sonya, and David Coyle; grandchildren Ashley, Alex, Jacob, Camryn, Cole, Ava, Garrett, Wyatt, Rowan, Logan, Kali, and great grandchildren Bennett, Aubree, Kadence, and Memphis; and siblings Jack Leonard, Debbie Bordelon, and Deana Hunter.

Cheryl's life was grounded in one of her most cherished bible verses, Psalm 33:20: We put our hope in the Lord. He is our help and our shield. Cheryl, I remember you with love and gratitude for having your friendship and presence in my life for many years. I remember our years in SIS and small group. Some of my fondest memories are from those years of fellowship, service, and friendship. I also remember all of those years at the praise gathering at St. Luke's Parish. What a wonderful spiritual community we had and what enduring blessings we all reaped from those years. Life on high in Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. I know you have lived well and you have run the race well. You did good, girlfriend, you did good! Much love, Linda Robison

She's been a part of my life since the moment I was born. How can I share one memory? She was a great big sister and I will miss her love and Godly wisdom.
