I remember you when we first moved to Houston and spent every weekend together and played and played. We used to lay almost under your house and looked for bugs and chew on clover! I remember the time our parents took us to Globe and bought all three of us a Tammy doll and we played with them on the way home in your mom and dad's ginormous station wagon. I'll never forget those innocent days with our families bbq'n and playin' all day. You guys were my besties then. I loved that time together of innocence and togetherness we shared.♥️👤🔪 Love, Cousin Clementina
