Craig Stephen Morrison

AUG 2, 1954 - AUG 6, 2023

Craig Stephen Morrison left us to go home to the Lord on August 6, 2023, in Houston, Texas.

Craig was born on August 2, 1954, in White Plains, New York. Through his young life growing up he lived in Georgia, California and finally Texas, where he eventually established his permanent residence in Baytown, and this is where he always returned. Craig offered a huge part of his life to helping others. In his earlier adult years, he had various adventures trying his hand at working with animals, putting up storage buildings in numerous locations, helping to run a homeless shelter and eventually ending up in the state of his birth running a rehabilitation facility in New York. Of course, he heard Texas calling and returned to start his night owl job for the Baytown Sun that satisfied his craving for overnight work. Finally, Craig ended up realizing his dream job working for S & S Investigations and Security. For the last decade, Craig helped to keep property and people safe. Starting in September 2013 as a security officer he was quickly promoted to patrol officer, dispatcher and supervisor. At the time of his passing, he was lead dispatcher and field supervisor over 50 officers with the additional duties of vehicle maintenance manager and assistant to the operations manager. He loved his job, responsibility and most importantly the family that S & S came to be to him. Craig was extremely intelligent and loving, you could always find him sharing his little factual anecdotes with family and friends as he shared the ironic elements of life especially reminding his nieces and nephews that their brains are not fully developed until they are 25. We will never forget his out of this world beef stroganoff and pineapple upside down cake. He will be deeply and sincerely missed by all. Craig is preceded in death by parents Guy Loren Morrison, Jr. and Harriet Louise Sommer Morrison. He is survived by his sisters; Sherry Morrison, Wendy Morrison, Dawn Morrison Saifi, her husband, Wadih Saifi; Nephews; Eric Morrison, his wife, Connie Morrison, Heath Pritchett, his

I remember when Craig was born. The Morrison and Graham family were beside themselves with joy that a grandson had finally been born in the family. Up until then all the grandchildren were girls. Yes, I guess he was a bit spoiled by all of us, at least for a while. There is a story that my mother, (Craig's maternal grandmother), liked to tell about the time Craig spent a week at our house in New Jersey. Our father had just bought his brand new 1957 Dodge that was yellow & black. He was out in the driveway washing it when Craig decided to go out and help him. Dad didn't see him right away until he went around to the other side of the car. There was Craig, trying to mimic grandpa's action of rubbing soap & water on the car, but Craig didn't have any soap and water so he used the sand laying in the driveway. He was rubbing it all over this brand new car. Needless to say, grandpa picked that little guy up and brought him in the house where he told his grandmother to keep him, making sure he does not go out of her sight. In all the years with my dad, I only saw him really angry twice, that was one of the two. Craig was mischievous, and loved picking on his sisters and cousins. Most of the time that my sister and brother-in-law lived in New York, I would spend my summer vacations with them. I was their built-in baby sitter. Craig will be missed by many, many people for sure. I am comforted in the fact that, based on Craig's profession, that he is safely in heaven enjoying a great reunion with his mom and dad and a host of other family members who preceded him. But mainly, he has met face to face with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Is that not the goal of every one of us who serve the Lord down here? Craig.....until we meet again, and we are all together for eternity. We will sing, The Little Blue Man together once again! Aunt Eunice
