I didn't know your father. But I know when living with you years ago if you ever needed any help around the house he was there. Be strong. Prayers headed your way.

Funny, I always called him Clarence and not Mr. Dieringer. I can't remember why because I first meet him when I was 9 and called all other parents Mr & Mrs.* but I always said Trudy & Clarence. I have so many FUN memories of our 2 families spending so much time together and boy did we laugh a lot. Everyone cared so much for each other. My absolutely favorite thing about Clarence was his smile. I miss the times where we all could be together and celebrate a milestone in our life's. We were always there for all the big events! I am so glad he lived a long life and so blessed to have loved him 🍷
