Johnnie May Dement

NOV 5, 1943 - FEB 14, 2024

Johnnie May Dement, a cherished wife, devoted mother, doting grandmother, beloved aunt, and dear friend, departed this world on February 14, 2024, in her beloved city of Houston, Texas. She was born on November 5, 1943, in the same vibrant city that held her heart.

Johnnie May's life was a symphony of love and compassion. Her warm embrace enveloped her family, friends, and all who crossed her path. As a wife, she stood by her partner, sharing laughter, tears, and countless sunsets. Her love was a beacon, guiding her children through life's twists and turns.

Her two granddaughters were the stars in her sky—their laughter echoing through her home, their tiny hands entwined with hers. Johnnie May reveled in their innocence, teaching them the magic of pink flowers and the beauty of life's simplest moments.

Pink was her signature color—a reflection of her gentle spirit. She adorned her garden with pink blooms, each petal whispering stories of love and resilience. The delicate fragrance of roses and azaleas danced around her, a testament to her unwavering devotion.

As an aunt, she was a confidante, offering sage advice and a listening ear. Her friendship knew no bounds; she was the glue that bound her community together. Johnnie May's legacy lives on in the hearts of those who knew her—a legacy of kindness, laughter, and the joy of pink blossoms.

Rest in peace, dear Johnnie May. May your spirit forever bloom in the gardens of our memories.

I will never forget the love and kindness that Miss Johnie showed me and my family every single time we saw her. Some of my most cherished childhood memories are of her and Mister Chet taking my sister and I to the air show as little girls and coming to have lunch with me on grandparents day at my elementary school. We lost an incredible woman with one of the sweetest and truest hearts I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I am sending my condolences to the entire Dement family during this time.
