So sorry to hear about Robert passing. I knew him through my husband that had known him and Charlene for years. He had also worked for him when he had his wrecker business at Canyon Lake.

Have fond memories of a real Texas "classic" who I enjoyed acquaintance with. Fond memories of visits to his Canyon Lake homestead and enjoying the countryside and lakeside wildlife come to mind. May the good Lord welcome him to the Heavens and peace be with him. Although I will be unable to attend the service, my thoughts, condolences and prayers go out to the family.
