Kerri Lynette Wilson

MAR 2, 1971 - MAR 20, 2024

Kerri Lynette Wilson, 53, passed away on March 20, 2024 in Alvin, TX. She was born in Ruston, La daughter to the late Etherlean and John H. Wilson.

She was preceded in death by brother, Johnny Demoine Wilson. She is survived by sister Shalundria Jones; three nephews Jared Wilson, Julian Wilson, Tariq Shepard; and great niece Jolana Wilson. She also held a special place in the hearts of numerous other relatives and friends.

Kerri was always known for wanting to take a stroll down memory lane. When she wasn't at home you could find her on a weekend road trip. Like us all, she had the Wilson signature love of music embedded in her. Her true passion however, was the time and energy she spent pursuing her career as a nurse.

Kerri your memories will forever be cherished and kept alive each day I look in the mirror. You will be missed dearly.

-Love Sis.

My Cousin Kerry you was always was a person that loves to keep things in order. I Miss my aunt Bookie. We didn't grow up like cousin but we grew up like brother and sister I will always remember the good times the fun we had growing up in our In our youth I will always remember. Our generation there's no one left but Me, Toot, and Rob. I always heard you'll never know the truth about heaven or hell until you close your eyes 🙏 But I know This. One day I will have to experience the truth but until then I will stay strong just like you did. I have and still learning if no one isn't concerned about where I'm at please don't understand where I'm trying to go.love and happiness.always and forever.love 1life. Just because its dark outside doesn't mean that the sun doesn't shine. I will try to stay on the highest roads and Walk The strongest bridge. Please God help me to keep doing The right actions so I won't have a worry to keep pushing I will make your distance be my motivation.
