Obituary for Ramona Argelia Iglesias

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Ramona Argelia Iglesias, who departed this world on July 26, 2024, at the age of 88. Ramona Argelia Iglesias was a beacon of love, warmth, and dedication in the lives of her family and friends, leaving behind a legacy that will be cherished forever.

Born on September 8, 1935 in El Salvador, Ramona Argelia Iglesias spent her life enriching the lives of those around her. Her greatest joy came from her family, especially her grandchildren, who were the light of her life. She devoted countless hours to caring for them, offering a gentle hand, a listening ear, and boundless love. Her home was a sanctuary of comfort and security, where her grandchildren always felt cherished and supported.

Ramona Argelia Iglesias had a remarkable talent for cooking, turning every meal into a celebration. Her kitchen was a place of magic, where she crafted delicious dishes that not only nourished the body but also warmed the soul. Her recipes, passed down through generations, were a testament to her creativity and dedication. Family gatherings were often highlighted by her culinary delights, and her legacy lives on in every dish she so lovingly prepared.

Gardening was another of Ramona Argelia Iglesias's passions. She found solace and joy in tending her garden, where her green thumb brought forth vibrant blooms and lush greenery. Her garden was not just a collection of plants but a reflection of her nurturing spirit and patience. It was a place where she found peace and contentment, and her love for nature was evident in every blossom and leaf.
