Bell Sr, Terrance Eugene

JUN 10, 1976 - AUG 3, 2024

Terrane Eugene Bell, Sr entered his eternal rest on Saturday, August 3, 2024, at 2:09 PM surrounded by family.

Terrance simply known as “Terry” or “Bell” was born June 10, 1976, in Houston, Texas to Allean Bell. The most amazing mom a son could have ever asked, hoped, or imagined for.

Terry enjoyed spending time with family, always the life of every get together. And he was a fierce protector of those he loved. He was born 2 months and 2 days after his nephew Clarence “Punkin” Strawder and for 48 years they had a very special bond. For the last few months of his life, they had the honor and privilege of sharing a home together which was a highlight for Terry that many probably didn’t even realize.

Terry was a hard worker and excelled at everything he set out to do but when he started working for Argo’s Cement Company, that was truly a major turning point in his life. He took so much pride in working for that company and everything that he accomplished during that season of his life. He always considered many of the guy’s true friends and even after he was no longer able to work, kept in touch with them. So, to his Argo’s family, thank you for keeping him in the fold.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Allean Bell and his son Terrance Davonte Bell. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Kitra Bell; four sons, Terrance Bell, Jr. (Simone), TraVonte Bell, Cornelius Bell, and Patrick Bell; three daughters, Terraneca Bell, Alexis Bell, and Naya Bell; nine grandchildren, Taler Bell, Terrance Bell, III, Teliyah Bell, Jahnothon Randolph, Arianna Randolph, Ayden Thrash, A’Leyia Thrash, Nevaeh Jenkins, and Sterling Jenkins; two sisters, Debra Strawder (Clarence) and Corasha; one brother, Robert James Bell; mother-in-law, Evelyn Iford; brother and sister-in-law, Kavis Bell (Allison); and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and family that will miss him dearly.
