I will always remember grandma for her freshly painted nails and her beautiful Red lipstick. I will always remember those summer days when I would watch TV and she would make me some great homecooked meals. I will always remember us doing silly hand gestures to try and communicate because our language barrier. But one thing was clear. She knew I loved her and I knew she loved me. I miss her dearly. ❤️

My beautiful, Grandma Chelo...I miss you so much, it's hard to believe you're gone. I am sorry I didn't make it in time to come see you...but I'm relieved you are now at peace. You have taught me so many things I will never forget in life: to always take care of my husband and child, take care of my skin, wear sunblock in the sun with a hat, always clean a messy home, take care of the possessions I have, always look nice when going out...and for that, I will always be grateful. For the rest of my life, every flower, bird, wind chime, butterfly, mono, trinket box, Mexican dress i see, I will always think of you. You will always be a memory in my heart until the day I die. I love you, Grandma. I hope to see you again some day in heaven with Grandpa Tomas.
