He married Annamma Mathew (Annie), who is a member of the Kaithakuzhy Vadakkumkara Kizhakkethil family in 1970 and they raised their family of two children. He had 2 brothers and 3 sisters: K. Baby is survived by his beloved wife Annie, his children Biny and Biby, their spouses Lema and Reji, and his grandchildren Adam, Aaron, Abigail and Phoebe.

In 2013, Baby and Annie migrated to USA to be closer to their son and daughter. During this time in USA, he was able to watch and experience first-hand the growth of his grandchildren. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and was keen to give them advise and life lessons. He was proud of his grandchildren's academic successes and enjoyed watching them perform musical instruments and play basketball and volleyball for their school and club teams.

Baby was hard-working and committed to successfully completing the tasks entrusted to him. He spent 43 years working as a bank officer, where he was known for his integrity and commitment to excellence and has always earned him respect among colleagues and friends alike. Despite his many responsibilities, he always found time for his family and his passions.
