William Wally Bostick Sr. is survived by his wife Cynthia Theodora Bostick of Missouri City, his daughter Annise Leesa Bostick Cahee, his son William Wally Bostick Jr. of Cypress Texas, his son Wayne Bostick of Rosenberg. Annise is married to his son-in-law Sean P. Cahee. He is the grandfather of four grand children. Kayleeya Cahee, Jazlyn Cahee, Brandon Cahee and Laila Bostick. His sister Jacqueline Joachim from Trinidad West Indies is the last remaining living sibling. She is married to his long time friend, Francis Joachim, who resides in Trinidad West Indies. Michael Trotman, Mitchell Trotman, Stephen Trotman, Ruthvin Trotman , Ural Trotman, Hazel Mends, Stephanie Trotman, Camilla Trotman, and Veronica Philbert became his in-laws. Veronica Philbert is no longer with us.

Those who new him, called him Wally, better known as “Sugar Fingers” for his unique cooking style. Style, personality and strength will be missed but not forgotten! In 1969 he immigrated to Boston, Massachusetts where he met his wife Cynthia Theodora Trotman. Their beautiful love story lasted 54 years. Wally worked at HP Hood and crafted his skill in collision repair. He later decided to opened his own collision repair facility, Bill Bostick Auto Body LLC in Boston. His journey after a few years led him to move his family back to Trinidad where he created a second repair facility, and then to Houston Texas where he opened and retired from his business. He enjoyed life. Spending time painting, playing his guitar, gardening, cruising and his family.

Dear Bostick Family, The Cahee family sends prayers for peace and comfort in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ. We share in your grief for the loss of Mr. Bostick. He was an honorable husband and father who loved his immediate and extended family with everything in him. Many a gathering and meals we shared at the Bostick home and he always ensured we felt welcome, comfortable, entertained and he made sure your glass was never empty! Oh how he loved entertaining...especially in the garage den that became the epicenter of celebrations! I enjoyed his tales of Trinidad, all his cruises and the celebrities he met, his art pieces and taste for decor. Mr. Bostick was a real "man's man"! He worked with his hands....they were always productive as evident in his beautiful home, immaculate yard, shiny cars, and I'm sure much more than we know. I will always remember his million dollar smile, his suave voice and his cool swaggy walk. He commanded respect in any room he walked in! He will be greatly missed. Now, may he rest in glory! - Kenya Cahee Patterson

Your energy, humor, and love for life were infectious, and I will forever cherish those moments. I'll especially miss your legendary hot beef callaloochie! Even the rice was hot 🍲.No one else could make it quite like you. It wasn't just food; it was a symbol of the love and warmth you brought into our lives.
