Bhawandas G. Harchandani

OCT 23, 1937 - FEB 15, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Bhawandas Harchandani, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend who departed peacefully on February 15, 2025, at the age of 87. Born in India, Bhawandas lived a life filled with kindness, wisdom, and generosity. He dedicated himself to his family, always leading with love and strength. His presence brought warmth to every room, and his unwavering support and guidance touched the lives of many. Bhawandas is preceded in death by his daughter Sonu Harchandani and survived by his wife Mohini Harchandani, his loving children with partners Nita and Deepak Mahtani, Manoj and Lata Harchandani; and Tarun and Indu Harchandani; his cherished grandchildren Nikita and her husband Cody Taylor, Karina Harchandani, Yash Mahtani, and Elina Harchandani; and many dear relatives and friends. He will be remembered for his gentle spirit, devotion to family, and wisdom, which he shared with all who knew him. A funeral service will be held on February 21, 2025, at 11 am at South Park Funeral Home and Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to The Ekal Vidyalaya Foundation or The Houston Food Bank in his honor. Though he is no longer with us in person, Bhawandas' legacy of love and kindness will live on in our hearts forever. May his soul find eternal peace.

Bhawan became my buddy in 1960 when he married Mohini and joined Vachani family I was already there waiting for him Soon they came to Calcutta and resided in same locality We two recently married couples started enjoying sightseeing trips every weekend Bhawan was Big brother in his family and played that role perfectly taking care of his siblings extremely well and Mohini gave him full cooperation even at cost of their own comfort I salute them for their dedication to the family
