Victoria trabajó como conserje en la Nasa en Friendswood ISD. Luego se cambió a Pearland ISD para ser monitor de un autobús.

Ella tenía un don especial para unir a las personas especialmente por medio de sus tamales legendarios.

Fanática de las novelas, Victoria encontraba alegría en sus historias, compartiendo sus favoritas con quienes la rodeaban y siempre enterándose de los últimos giros y vueltas de la trama.

También disfrutaba ir a la sala de máquinas de juegos, donde encontraba diversión, emoción y momentos de relajación. Ya fuera viendo un episodio dramático o probando suerte en las máquinas, Victoria vivía plenamente las simples alegrías de la vida.

Pero su mayor alegría provenía del tiempo que pasaba con su familia, celebrando hitos y creando recuerdos que atesoraría para siempre. Era una madre orgullosa de tres hijos, Oscar Moreno, Jr., Cynthia Resendez y Hector Hugo Moreno. Nueras, Machelle Moreno y Leticia Moreno. Sus

Mabelle Moreno lit a candle in honor of Victoria.

I loved my mother in law dearly. Her and I used to cut up all the time. I have missed our time together ever since she got sick a couple years back. She went to ask of my doctors appointments when I was trying to conceive and all of them that followed. Anytime she was needed, she was there, morning, noon, night, and even the middle of the night to rub an egg on her grand daughter, Victoria. You are missed and we will meet again, sweet lady!
