Sue loved the Lord Jesus and had great faith. She chose to never speak a bad word about anyone or anything. A moral quality we could all benefit from practicing. She enjoyed coloring, and so many crafts which were beautifully displayed in her apt. But what I loved best about her was her beautiful loving heart & her sense of humor. Even at the end when she was confined to bed & in pain, she would surprise me with her quick wit and make my day brighter. I will miss her dearly but am soooooo very happy for her to be with our Saviour God, and I look forward to seeing her again, in heaven. I love you Sue! Your friend and sister in Christ Diane
