I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Patsy Cavazos. She was a true force for good in Houston ISD, always passionate about teaching and learning. I'll never forget the encouragement she gave me to pursue a specialist position after visiting my reading lab ancillary classroom. As an executive principal, she made it a point to meet with all stakeholders, ensuring that every voice was heard. Her leadership and commitment left a lasting impact on so many of us. You could always count on Patsy to be honest, objective, and graceful. She supported me in all of my various roles in the district. I remained in contact with her when she went to Sheldon ISD. This picture is from my goodbye party when I left HISD. Patsy took time out of her busy schedule to come by and wish me well. Heaven has truly gained a good one. She will always hold a special place in my heart and will be greatly missed.

I had the privilege and joy of working alongside Ms. Cavazos. For 3 years I saw her nearly everyday. In our short time together she taught me a great deal. It was incredible to watch her handle difficult situations with grace and calm. She had an amazing strength and belief in her ability to make things better for kids. Which she absolutely did everywhere she went! I will forever be grateful for her mentorship and her belief in me. She made everyone around her better. You will be missed!

Patsy is my second cousin, her dad Antonio Palos, Jr., was my first cousin. I remember Patsy as a little girl, she was a 11 years younger than I. She was a pleasant little girl, always smiling. She and sister Pita would play-act a dance "performance," we would all applaud. Each time I saw her, as we grew up, even the last time, a few weeks ago, she was smiling. That's how I will remember Patsy. But I am sad that she has left us too soon. My condolences to her Mom Eva, her siblings, and especially to her husband and her children. I know she tried hard not to leave you. ❤️

My sis, Patsy, was not an outdoorsy person. The exception was when her grandson, Kady, wanted go fishing. Pat has always been a team player so she threw herself into the fishing experience. Pat discovered that she enjoyed sitting patiently for a fish to bite. When asked if she wanted to do it again, Patsy said "that's ok"
