Delgado, Ernest

AUG 20, 1962 - JUL 12, 2025

Ernest Delgado August 20,1962-July 12,2025 It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Ernest Delgado. He departed left us July 12, 2025 at the age of 62. He was a proud resident of Pearland,TX.

Ernest was a devoted father, grandfather, son, uncle and friend. His presence brought joy laughter and love to everyone around him. Ernest lived a full vibrant life surrounded by people he loved.

Left to cherish his memory is his daughter Desiree, son in law Marvin, granddaughters Suzette, Juliette, Charlotte who were the light of his life. He also leaves behind his loving mother Eva , his sister Irene, brothers Richard, Michael, John, Floyd, Kenneth, Delfino, and Chris. Ernest will be missed dearly by his many nieces and nephews and his wide circle of loyal and caring friends. He is preceded in death by his brothers Lloyd, and Vincent Delgado also his stepfather Manuel Lara and his Uncle Tony Flores.

Ernest was a true Houston sports fan always rooting for his hometown Houston teams. He loved nothing more than relaxing with friends and family barbecue, fishing shooting pool, and sharing stories. Ernest was known for his kind heart, easygoing spirit and devotion to all those he loved and cared about.

His loss leaves a deep void in our lives and hearts but his love and memory will live in with us.

Abe Molina lit a candle in honor of Ernest.

When I think of fast cars, Earnest is always the first person I think of. I will always remember our trip to the Texas Jam and how much we laughed and rocked out that day. May your tires always have fresh rubber, your tank be full, and your music loud! Rest in Power Earnest! 🇺🇸🚗👊 Always, Abe Molina.
