Laureano De Jesus Ballestas

NOV 25, 1983 - AUG 25, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Laureano De Jesus Ballestas, a remarkable young man whose presence lit up every room and whose spirit left an indelible mark on all who knew him. Born on November 25, 1983, Laureano lived a life defined by courage, loyalty, and boundless energy. He passed away on August 25, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unwavering devotion.

A proud member of the United States Army, Laureano served his country with honor and dedication. His passion for firearms was not just a hobby—it was a reflection of his discipline, skill, and respect for the values he held dear. But beyond the uniform, Laureano was the heartbeat of every gathering—the life of the party, the one whose laughter was contagious and whose stories could captivate a crowd.

To his family, he was a rock. A loyal son, a protective brother, and above all, a devoted father whose love knew no bounds. His son was his world, and he poured his heart into every moment spent with them. His legacy lives on in their smiles, their strength, and the memories they will carry forward.

He was a man of fierce loyalty, deep convictions, and a zest for life that inspired everyone around him. Though his time with us was far too short, the impact he made will echo for generations.

Rest easy, Laureano. You were truly one of a kind.

Erika Reyes lit a candle in honor of Laureano.

My brother...my friend. There are no words that can express how we feel. Just know that even though you will not always be by our side, you will forever be in our hearts.
