George Edward Scruggs

NOV 9, 1944 - NOV 2, 2025

George Edward Scruggs died Sunday, Nov. 2, 2025, in Pearland, Texas. He was 80 years old.

An avid outdoorsman who was fond of sports, George leaves a lasting legacy to his sweet, extended family and countless others he crossed paths with.

Born on November 9, 1944, to Charles and Thora Scruggs, George enjoyed a one-of-a-kind childhood. Among his fondest memories was playing outside with his friends and brothers, who he playfully harassed by shooting his .22-caliber rifle past them. A football and baseball player at Alvin High School, he had the honor of being a teammate with baseball Hall of Famer and Lone Star State legend Nolan Ryan.

George later became a member of the Carpenters Union and took a liking to slow-pitch softball, a sport in which he got to travel across Texas and celebrate winning state championships. He enjoyed deer hunting with family, loved the Houston Astros, only wore flip-flops until Crocs came along and had notable sweet tooth, especially for HEB Glazed donuts, lemon-filled donuts and Ding Dongs.

He was married to Cheryl Scruggs for 51 years, remained in Alvin, raising horses, chickens and peacocks and loved dogs and cats. He will be missed by his pup Lil Rascal.

As we say goodbye, we give thanks for the life of George Edward Scruggs. Though our hearts are heavy, we find comfort knowing that his spirit lives on — in the rustle of the trees at sunrise, in the crack of a bat at an Astros game, and in every moment we remember him with love and gratitude.

Dad may be gone from our sight, but he'll never be gone from our hearts.
