Rachel Uvalle

MAR 4, 1963 - FEB 6, 2026

On February 6, 2026, Rachel was called home to be with our Lord, leaving behind a legacy of love that will forever live in our hearts. She was more than a devoted wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, tía, cousin, and cherished friend — she was the heart of her family. Her love was gentle yet strong, steady and unconditional, the kind that held everyone together through every season of life. She gave endlessly, loved deeply, and made each person feel seen and treasured. Though she is no longer with us in body, her warmth, her prayers, and her beautiful spirit will continue to guide and comfort us always.

She leaves behind her loving husband, Carlos, along with her cherished children, Laura, Ruben, and Nikkie; her grandchildren, Efren Jr., Michael, Elissa, Alexa, Keira, Naomi, Olivia, and Ophelia; and her great-grandchildren, Maya and Adaline. She is also survived by her siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless friends who were blessed to know her and feel the warmth of her heart.

Rachel was the heart of her family — the one who held everyone together with unconditional love, quiet strength, and endless compassion. Her presence brought comfort, laughter, and a sense of home wherever she went. As a mother, she guided with patience, wisdom, and unwavering support, always putting her family first and loving without limits.

As a grandmother and great-grandmother, she found her greatest joy in the moments spent with her family. Her hugs felt like home, her advice came from a place of deep love, and the memories she created will live on in the hearts of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren forever. To her siblings, cousins, nieces, and nephews, she was a source of encouragement, laughter, and unity — always the one who made sure no one felt alone.

Rachel had a beautiful spirit and a generous heart. Whether through her cooking, her stories, or simply the comfort of her presence, she made life brighter and more meaningful for everyone around her. She loved deeply, gave endlessly, and left an imprint on every life she touched.

Though our hearts ache with her loss, we take comfort in knowing that her love will never leave us. It lives on in the lessons she taught, the memories she gave, and the family she loved so fiercely. She will be deeply missed, forever remembered, and always cherished — forever in our hearts.

We find comfort in knowing that Rachel has gone to Heaven to reunite with her beloved son Arturo, her precious grandson Sammy, her father Cipriano and her sister Norma. Though their parting on earth brought deep sorrow, we trust there was a joyful reunion beyond the gates of Heaven — filled with embraces, peace, and eternal love. While we grieve her absence here, we hold onto the beautiful image of her surrounded once again by those she missed so dearly, resting in God's presence and watching over us all.
