Condolences and prayers to Lloyd and sister Grace, Tony and Jerrid! It's hard to say goodbye specially to someone who was well loved! Alice, who I also called Mama Alice as my sister called her was fun to be around with her beautiful smile and laugh. She was truly a beautiful lady! I had fun hanging out with her and with her sister Dixie too. We loved to eat, go shopping and admiring flowers! Our bonding time is in the car talking and laughing on our way to Lake Charles going to the Casinos. We enjoyed eating and shopping there. I will miss her as part of our crew. Eternal rest Mama Alice 🙏

I will deeply miss momma Alice. I know I didn't know her for very long, but from the time I've known her she was funny and truly loved her family. I remember the very first time I met her we talked for several hours on the things she loved and what she loved doing. I will definitely miss her when she would call just to check in and to see how things are going. I will miss you deeply momma Alice. Rest in peace with no more suffering or in pain! ❤️🕊️🦋

I will always remember all the good times we shared. We both loved shopping, cruising and slot machines lol. My family loved her as well because of her good nature & easy going attitude. She didn't fit the cliché of meddling mother in law and I admired that about her. Rest in God's peace & heavenly paradise Mama Alice 💕🙏💕🙏
