Sergio David Chamorro

JAN 28, 1955 - APR 4, 2026

Sergio David Chamorro, born on January 28, 1955, passed away peacefully on April 4, 2026, surrounded by the love and comfort of his family. A devoted husband of 25 years, a proud father, and a deeply cherished grandfather, Sergio built a life defined by loyalty, generosity, and quiet strength.

Sergio was the steady center of his family—someone who listened more than he spoke, who showed love through action, and who offered support without hesitation. His warmth and gentle humor made him a source of comfort to those who knew him, and his presence brought a sense of calm to every room he entered.

He had a deep appreciation for music, especially the band Guns N' Roses, whose songs became the soundtrack to many moments in his life. Whether he was sharing stories, relaxing after a long day, or simply enjoying time with family, their music was never far away. It was one of the many ways he expressed his passion, personality, and youthful spirit.

Sergio's greatest joy came from his family. He was a husband who loved with devotion, a father who guided with patience, and a grandfather who delighted in every laugh, every milestone, and every moment spent with the next generation. His legacy is carried forward in the values he instilled—kindness, resilience, and the importance of showing up for the people you love.

He will be remembered for his unwavering love, his quiet strength, and the joy he brought to those fortunate enough to share in his life. Though he is no longer with us, Sergio's spirit lives on in the hearts of those he loved and who loved him in return.

Mrs Jackie's Tax Service posted:

This guy was like a big brother to me. He thought I was the best tax preparer, and I thought he was the greatest hard-working welder. We shared years of memories talking about our families, children, and how he would be out of town working. Sergio will be missed. I am so glad I had a chance to see him before he flew to his special place with many angels.

Giselle Arredondo lit a candle in honor of Sergio.

Sergio was a very kind man who lived for his family. He always took care of what mattered most to him. For that, I am grateful that I got to meet this wonderful man more than 10 years ago. To see him become a grandfather to my best friends daughter, Valentina, gives me comfort & joy because he got to experience one of the most beautiful moments that this life could offer. My heart goes out to my best friend and her family and may they find some kind of comfort through this difficult time. 🙏
